Pipers to Play At Coahoma

After taking a week off, the Pipers will travel to Coahoma Friday to resume district action. For the Pipers, who have been virtually eliminated from the district race, it will be a game of pride and the desire to avenge last year's 13-7 loss to the Bulldogs.

For the Bulldogs who lost to Ballinger last week 7-0, the game is important in that another loss would also eliminate them from any possible title hopes. Coahoma is 3-1 in district and 4-4 on the season while the Pipers are 2-2 in district and 4-2-1 for the season.

Other District 6-AA action this week will pit Ballinger at Stamford and Winters at Colorado City. Last week while Ballinger was edging out Coahoma 7-0 and Hamlin was idle, Stamford was defeating Winters, 31-14, and Anson was shutting out Colorado City, 12-0.

For the season, the Bulldogs hold wins over Big Lake, 14-6, Colorado City, 14-6, Anson, 15-14, and Winters, 35-8. The Bulldogs lost to Post, 20-0, Cisco, 20-14, McCamey, 19-12, and to Ballinger, 7-0.

On offense the Bulldogs run from the Wishbone, the "T" Slot, and the Straight "T" formations. Leading the Bulldog attack will be quarterback Charles Tindol, 160-pound senior, who is a good scrambling passer. Joining him in the backfield will be Ken Kelso, 165-pound

Wide receiver for Coahoma will be Tim Higgins, 140-pound senior, and at tight end will be Bill Jennings, 210-pound senior. The tackles will be Ken Fryrear, 165-pound junior, and David Garten, 195-pound senior. The guards will be Bill Brown, 175-pound junior, and Terry Roberts, 180-pound sophomore, and the center will be Joe Wright, 150-pound senior.

On defense for the Bulldogs the front four will be Robert Spiller, 170-pound junior; Jennings, 210, Bobby Fryer, 190-pound junior, and Ricky Patterson, 185-pound senior. The linebackers are Danny Thomas, 160-pound junior, and Kelso, 165-pounds. The corners are Jim Phillips, 140-pound junior, and Oscar Pardon, 155-pound senior. The halfbacks are Edwin Dickson, 150-pound junior, and Tindol, 165-pounds, while the safety is Roberts, 160 pounds.

Light Voter Turnout Expected In Constitution Election Tuesday

A light voter turnout is being predicted here Tuesday when Hamlin voters join voters across Texas in determining the fate of the proposed revision of the Texas Constitution.

Only one voting box will be open in Hamlin for this election with both boxes, one and 14, combined. Local voters will cast their ballots on the eight propositions at the Public School Gymnasium between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. John Watts will serve as election judge.

The voters of Texas will have the opportunity to vote on a revised constitution for the first time in 100 years Tuesday. The proposed revision of the constitution is submitted in the form of eight separate amendments, each of which revises a particular portion of the constitution and may be individually adopted or rejected by the voters.

The eight propositions as they will appear on the ballot are as follows:

Proposition No. 1—The constitutional amendment revising the Separation of Powers, Legislative, and Executive Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 2—The constitutional amendment revising the Judiciary Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 3—The constitutional amendment revising the Voting and Election Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 4—The constitutional amendment revising the Education Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 5—The constitutional amendment revising the Finance Provision of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 6—The constitutional amendment revising the Local Government Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 7—The constitutional amendment revising the General Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 8—The constitutional amendment revising the Mode of Amending Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Ex-Student to Start Fund For Memorial Scholarship

In weekly meetings by the officers of the Hamlin Ex-students Association, plans for the 21st annual Hamlin High School Homecoming are being formed.

A new feature of the 1975 event will be establishing a memorial scholarship fund in memory of deceased ex-students. Plans are to provide an additional scholarship each year to a deserving graduate. Anyone wishing to donate in memory of an ex-student may send donations to the Memorial Scholarship Fund, Box 323, Hamlin.

Officers are also asking residents to bring pictures of deceased ex-students to Mar-Joe's Merle Norman Studio for the memorial window to be prepared by Mrs. Robert Fowler. Pictures are to be picked up by the owners after Homecoming.

The Homecoming will be a part of the Hamlin Bicentennial celebration, according to C. L. White, Ex-student president. He urges citizens to make an extra effort to take part in the Nov. 7-8 activities.

Float entries for the Nov. 8 parade should be entered with Mrs. Leone Brown or O. H. Weaver Jr.

The association is also selling green felt "Piper" hats. These are available at Reynold's Drug and Mar-Joe's. This is a project that has been sponsored before by the association and has been popular with the young children, especially those who ride with the "Little Pipers" in the parade, the officers noted.

Several class reunions are being planned by individuals during the homecoming. Special activities are planned for the classes of 1955, 1960 and 1965. Others who may be planning class reunions are asked to contact the Hamlin Herald for this information to be published next week.

The usual schedule of activities will include the Friday evening chili supper before the Stamford-Hamlin football game, crowning of the queens at halftime and the after game coffee.

Saturday activities include a 9 a.m. coffee for National Honor Society and Student Council ex-students and teachers, the 10:30 downtown parade, the noon barbecue luncheon, and a tour of the churches and Girl Scout open house during the afternoon.

The officers will meet again Monday at 5:30 p.m. in Sweetwater Savings Association Hamlin Branch Community Room.

Dr. Serrano's wife, Lesley, also a licensed physician, will join her husband here later. She also holds a doctor of medicine degree from the University of East School of Medicine and is presently teaching in the University. They have one child.

Reading Consultant Works With Right to Read Program Here

Dr. Jann Skinner, professor of reading at Pacific College, Fresno, Calif., was in Hamlin Monday and Tuesday serving the teachers in grades two through five as a consultant in the Right to Read program.

Teachers here Monday in an in-service day were joined for the special workshop by Aspermont teachers. Dr. Skinner pointed out revisions in the curriculum for more effective teaching of reading. Emphasis was placed on developing an overall program that would be more effective.

Through testing and evaluation weak points could be spotted and corrected. Testing would not be for a grade, she said, but to evaluate the child's potential and progress.

The teachers were divided into small working groups and Dr. Skinner circulated among the groups to point out the reading skills that should be taught at the various grade levels.

Dr. Skinner is curriculum coordinator for the Firebaugh School District in California.

Ray Simmons of the Education Service Center, Region 14, Abilene, assisted in the day's activities.

Dr. Skinner spoke to the Lions Club Tuesday at noon as a guest of Larry Butler, principal of the Hamlin Elementary School. During the day Tuesday she worked with individual teachers.

AT IN-SERVICE DAY—Members of the Hamlin Elementary School faculty discuss reading programs with Dr. Jann Skinner of Fresno, Calif., seated, after the in-service day here Monday. From left are Becky Lucas, Mrs. Charles Connolly, Mrs. Chris Pena, Joe McMillan. Ray Simmons, right, a representative of Region 14 Education Service Center, Abilene, also attended the all day session. Dr. Skinner was here as a consultant in the local Right to Read program.

The constitutional election to be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, has to be one of the strangest elections we have seen in Texas.

In the past, you have never had any trouble predicting who was for and who was against almost any issue facing the state's voters. The lines have almost always been well defined. If the more liberal members of the democratic party were for something it was not hard to predict that the conservative members would oppose it. And if the issue did not split the democratic party then you knew that if the Republicans took one side then the democrats would take the other.

But the proposed constitutional amendments facing voters Tuesday has drawn support as well as opposition from all spectrums of the state's political ranks. You can find some of the most conservative as well as the most liberal thinkers joining together either to support or condemn this attempt to rewrite our constitution.

Under these conditions, it is most difficult to decide if one is for or against the eight amendments to rewrite our present document that is over 100 years old and has been amended over 200 times.

It is tempting to just throw up one's hands and vote no to the whole thing, but is this really to our best interests?

In the first place one must decide if we need a new constitution and if we do is this the best one that we are likely to get. If we decide that we do need one, and a majority of Texans voted to call the convention that created most of the document that we will be voting on Tuesday, then we believe that we should take the advice of House Speaker Bill Clayton and support the new constitution. For it is Clayton's contention that the rural people of Texas will never come out any better than they will with this one.

It is his contention that we will see a new constitution for Texas, if not this one then it will be another one, and he feels that they will not get any better.

Like anything else of the magnitude of our state constitution, there are some areas that we favor and some areas that we question.

What bothers us the most, however, is that the opposition to the constitution seems to be either centered around the fear of change or else it is being opposed by special interest groups.

The governor and those who join him in opposing the new document on the grounds that it calls for annual sessions do so on the grounds that the more the Legislature is in session the more laws it will create and the more

Hamlin High School Happenings

(Compiled each week by the HHS Journalism Class)

The theme for the 1975 Homecoming is in collaboration with the nation's Bicentennial. The theme will be "Hamlin-70 years, America-200."

Homecoming will be Nov. 7 and 8. During the Hamlin-Stamford football game on Nov. 7, the Homecoming and Coming Home Queens will be crowned.

Homecoming Queen nominees include Sonja Corlee, Debra Hollis, Cyndi Lewis and Debbie Light. The Coming Home Queen will be chosen from past graduates of Hamlin High School.

The parade will be started at 10:30 Saturday morning. The parade is directed by O. H. Weaver Jr. and Mrs. Earl Brown. Floats will be judged with cash prizes for the top three floats in two divisions, beauty and open.

A chili supper will be held before the football game from 5 to 7 p.m., and a barbeque will be held after the parade from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Both will be set in the high school cafeteria.

The Hamlin Junior Class' 20-8 victory over the Senior Class unfolded like a time bomb in the Powder Puff football game Monday evening in Piper Stadium.

The senior captains were Lisa Absher, Debi Cary and Cyndi Lewis, while the junior captains were Cheryl Baker and Barbara Hooper.

After the seniors won the toss to open the game, Barbara Hooper was on the run, scoring the first six points for the juniors. Jamie Crowley added the extra points.

During the second quarter the juniors scored again with Liz Hooper tallying the touchdown.

At the beginning of the third quarter Stacy Bell came in and scored a TD and the extra points for the seniors' only scores.

Barbara Hooper scored the final six points for the juniors in the final quarter.

Referees for the contest were seniors Rick Craig and David Moore, and sophomores Mack Lee and Mike Hymer. All proceeds went to the Student Council.

The sophomores and half of the eighth grade played with the juniors, while the freshmen and the rest of the eighth grade played with the seniors.

The Hamlin junior varsity crushed the Cooper Cougars 28-13 in Piper Stadium last Thursday evening.

Mack Lee was the leading scorer of the game with three touchdowns, while fullback Tim Dechairo also tallied a TD for the Pipers. Jimmy Gipson converted all four extra points.

Since the junior varsity A-team and B-team were combined they have won four consecutive games which leaves their record at 4-2-1 for the season.

The Hamlin girls' volleyball team will host the first round of the District 6-AA tournament Oct. 5 in the Hamlin Gym. The next evening the district teams are to play in the Ballinger Bearcat gym for the finals.

The Hamlin Pied Piper Band, under the direction of Tim Jones, will compete in U. I. L. marching contest Nov. 4 in Shotwell Stadium in Abilene.

Deadline for news for events that happen before or during the weekend is noon Monday.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

(October 30, 1925)
Wednesday morning two bales of cotton were discovered on fire in the public cotton yard and the fire boys went out and rolled the bales away from the others and prevented a general destruction. This was a second fire this week and this time as on Monday morning the wind was extremely high.

Evidently somebody thinks the M.K.-&T station at Hamlin has money. Every few weeks the safe is broken open, and each time they are almost fooled. Last Saturday night the safe was blown again and the sum of $3.03 was taken out. That was all there was. This is getting to be "awful" common. But listen, we are informed that this SAME office was again entered Sunday night by the same door, and the desk and drawers were searched, but nothing but a fountain pen was missed. Evidently the parties must have thought that surely a big railroad company has some cash about, somewhere, but there was nothing doing. Now, fellows, or fools, what's the use of breaking open a perfectly good safe anyway?

Reg Robbins, known better as "Robin Red Breast" flew over Hamlin again Monday in his plane paying Hamlin a second visit. It will be remembered that he was here last fall and "Jimmie," the dare devil, parachute jumper was with him. Now Robbins merits the name of "Robin Red Breast," for he flies equal to a bird. This is funny that Robbins returns to Hamlin. Can't tell whether he is married or single. All we can get him to say is that "All my debts are paid, and I'm a single man when I'm up in the air. Robbins is going to remain here till next week. His home is in Fort Worth and he is a fine fellow.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Elaborate plans for the Hamlin Garden Club's first Flower Show were shaping this week as the event scheduled Saturday afternoon and evening shaped, officials of the group announced, the middle of the week. The Hamlin High School Cafeteria will be the site for the show, which will be open from 2 until 8 p.m. to the general public.

New parking place stripes were being painted along Hamlin's main streets this week adjacent to parking meters. The spaces, a little larger than most city's parking spots will make parking easier. Crews of the State Highway Department last week painted new traffic lane stripes on Central Avenue and Lake Drive.

Dr. Joe C. Humphrey, academic dean of McMurry College at Abilene will be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the Elementary Parent-Teachers Association, when it convenes Thursday, Nov. 3, at 3:45 p.m. in the Primary School Building. All parents of the community are urged by P-TA officials to attend the session and hear Dr. Humphrey. Topic of the meeting will be "The Family Sustains the Schools."

A shortage of cotton pickers in the County, typical of that experienced in the Hamlin area, was hampering cotton harvesting in Jones County, according to the latest farm labor bulletin of the Texas Employment Commission. Shortage of some 300 workers was reported for the Jones County Region. Other areas counties were reporting greater and lesser need for pickers.

TEN YEARS AGO

problems they will create. Based on that assumption, maybe we should change it so that the Legislature only meets every 10 years!

But in our opinion the state just operates from one crisis to the next when it tries to take care of the business matters of a state as large as Texas every two years.

The one thing that scares us is that almost every special interest group that opposes this new constitution is doing so in the name of the "people." Almost all of them claim that the new constitution would take something out of the hands of the people and give it to the legislators or someone else.

In almost every case when people tell you they are doing something to protect the rights of the "people," what they really mean is that they have a good thing going and don't want it messed up. Our whole system of government is based on the concept of representative government, not on the idea that every issue should be settled by the individual voter.

Regardless of whether we are operating under our present constitution or the new one being proposed, our government can only be as good as the people we elect to office.

As William Broyles points out in this month's issue of Texas Monthly, almost every objection seems to fall into one of three categories: it is either selfish, uninformed, or nitpicking.

In making a decision on how to vote next Tuesday we asked ourselves if the new constitution is substantially better than the old one and if it is likely to be the best that we're to get? In both cases we have to say yes and therefore we plan to vote for all eight propositions.

While we don't necessarily urge everyone to vote the way we do, we do hope that sometime between now and Tuesday you will take the time to study the issues involved, if you have not already done so, and vote accordingly.

AFTER THE PARTY IS OVER

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Have you ever felt like this little girl after a big, exciting day at the Fair, or a party? You know how you feel — excited, exhausted; but you feel good, too. Sometimes you just want to lie down and think about it. But like the little one in this picture you, also, are too tired to remove your party hat or your shoes.

Sometimes it is delightful just to lie down and think of something good and wonderful and happy. It is good just to be still and sort of day-dream about what has happened.

There are other times in our lives when we need to achieve a sense of quietness and think of God. The Psalmist says, "Commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still." Psalm 4:4. God says in Psalms 46:10 "Be still and know that I am God."

We invite you to attend church and sense the still, quiet holiness that is God's presence in the midst of the congregation.

A message to voters

All registered voters have an opportunity to vote in our Constitutional Election on Tuesday, November 4.

Free and open elections are the foundation upon which Democracy is built. It is the responsibility of the Secretary of State to protect your voting rights.

If you have any problems voting on November 4, please call us in Austin at this toll-free number:

1-800-292-9677

Exercise your right to vote. It's easy, and it's important.

Sincerely,

Texas Secretary of State

Texans to Vote On New Constitution Nov. 3

PROPOSITION NO. 3 creates a new Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections. It provides that a person who is at least 18 years of age, is not a convicted felon in prison, on parole or probation, or is not mentally incompetent, would be qualified to vote under laws enacted by the Legislature.

Proponents argue that this amendment establishes universal suffrage which is basically the requirement of the U. S. Constitution as it is now interpreted. Opponents point out that this provision would enable the Legislature to permit convicted felons to have a full restoration of citizenship, including the right to hold elected office, without pardon by the passage of a statute permitting such a person to vote.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 provides for a new Article VII, Education, which governs public education. The amendment calls for an equitable system of free public schools below the college level. The system must provide each individual an equal educational opportunity but may provide local enrichment of educational programs.

Proponents argue that: this gives the authority and the mandate to provide an equal opportunity for every child in this state to have as complete an education as is possible; this is what federal mandate requires; and citizens should meet the challenge and move forward to accomplish it.

Opponents argue that: while the aim might be laudable, the words are subject to a broad interpretation which would come up with ridiculous results in financing, programming and staffing; and the last Legislature had spoken to the problem of equalizing educational opportunity under the existing Constitution and there is no need for a change.

The Permanent and Available School Funds remain intact as do the Permanent and Available University Funds for the use of the University of Texas and Texas A&M University Systems. A second "Higher Education Fund," financed by a 10 cent property tax, would be available to establish an endowment for all other state colleges and universities other than the A&M and Texas systems.

Proponents argue that all higher educational institutions in the state should have available to them an endowment fund from which to keep their plant and facilities up to date without looking to tuition fees and the public treasury to do so. Opponents of this part of the proposal argue that there should be no endowment fund of public property and money sitting idle while the Legislature is forced to levy new and additional taxes for the upkeep, maintenance and operation of the various educational institutions; that if public property and funds are collected, they should be spent to meet the public need at the time without creating a bigger taxation burden on the general public.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 creates a new Article VIII, Finance, which governs the financial management of the state.

In this amendment the requirement that all new taxes be equal and uniform would be limited only to the levy of property taxes. It would require the establishment and enforcement of uniform standards and procedures for the appraisal of property, the only exceptions being special formulas designed to promote the preservation of open space land for farm and ranch purposes and the preservation of forest lands devoted to timber production.

Proponents contend that: this is a necessary improvement to require all citizens to carry their fair share of the tax burden; there are as many different values assessed on property as there are taxing authorities; and equalization is necessary because the allocation of state funds for school purposes is made on the basis of a local area's ability to raise funds.

Opponents maintain that: it will do nothing but raise taxes; no government ever equalizes downward but always "equalizes" upwards and this will force an additional tax burden, particularly in outlying urban areas where there is less ability to meet the demand; the equal and uniform provision should apply to all forms of taxation instead of just property taxation; and local appraisers are better prepared to judge the value of local property than someone in Austin.

The proposal permits the authorization of state indebtedness and the pledging of the credit of the state without a Constitutional amendment. Proponents of this portion of the proposal say that this is a more practical way to authorize state indebtedness, with the same safeguards as contained in the present Constitution. It requires a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Legislature as well as an approval by a majority of the voters.

Opponents of this portion of the proposal claim that it amounts to the establishment of debt legislation by referendum, and it would make less of an impression on the voters than if they realized they were amending their Constitution in order to authorize debt.

The proposal maintains the same pay-as-you-go provisions requiring appropriations to be within estimated revenues. It puts into the Constitution the prohibition against levying a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feed or seed, prescription drugs or medicine, and food for human consumption.

Proponents of this part of the proposal contend that the pay-as-you-go provision should be retained. The exemptions that have been placed in the sales tax on these various items are already established practice and would protect the public from further encroachment from the sales tax.

Opponents of the proposal contend that locking the sales tax exemptions into the Constitution would effectively remove some available revenue sources from consideration. It would also create an unfair disadvantage for industrial development because industrial production machinery is already taxed and this would prohibit agricultural production machinery from every being taxed. It would also remove a major untapped source of revenue which most states having a sales tax already enjoy. The proposal fails in that it does not prohibit the levying of a state progressive income tax.

necessary to serve their population needs. Opponents of the proposal claim that it would be granting an unnecessarily broad, autonomous power to small communities which can generally provide for the limited needs of its citizens under the general law provisions of the state statutes.

There is also a provision for intergovernmental cooperation and consolidation of offices and transfer of functions between local political subdivisions. Proponents claim that this would result in a substantial reduction in costs and duplication of services of local governments. Opponents claim that this same consolidation and cooperation is presently authorized by the Constitution and has not accomplished the desire results.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 provides a new Article X, General Provisions, which is basically a housekeeping article. It includes: the homestead provisions; separate or community property; protection of personal property from forced sale; protection of wages from garnishment; limitations upon banking corporations; provisions for the regulation of alcoholic beverages; and provisions for the regulation of medical practitioners.

It prohibits lotteries and gift enterprises; regulates interest and lending; provides for the various retirement systems of public employees, and protecting the environment, conserving natural resources and public property as well as wildlife resources.

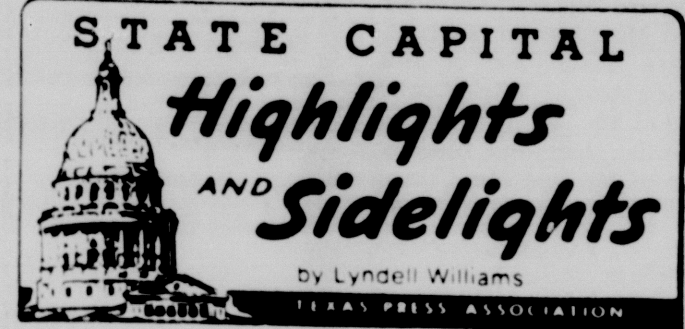

Proponents of the new Constitution say that this amendment is necessary to take care of those constitutional protections and prohibitions that exist in the present Constitution, are desirable, and do not particularly fit under any of the other articles.

Opponents contend that: while this does continue some desirable protections of the existing Constitution, it adds one very undesirable aspect in the language which seeks to protect the environment. This language could create a super land title in the state which would give legislators the authority to exercise all sorts of controls over the use of the property; that it would conceivably give rise to land use enforcement, statewide zoning and building codes and remove a portion of the landowners title from him and vest it in the state; that this is the fixing of title to all property in the state which could be held temporarily and at the will of the state by an individual citizen.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 provides a new Article XI, Method of Amending the Constitution of the State. It maintains the same basis for submission of amendments as was utilized in submitting these eight amendments; that is, submission by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the membership of both houses of the Legislature and adoption by a simple majority of the people voting in an election called for that purpose.

It does add a provision that a question of a constitutional convention be submitted by the Legislature at least once each thirty years. Proponents argue that this added provision is necessary so that the people will not have to be governed by a document that is 100 years old without every having had an opportunity to totally revise it. Opponents of the provision contend that the current Constitution can adapt itself to all situations including that of calling a constitutional convention as it did in 1973; that there is no need to be told by the Constitution how often the people have to revise it.

AUSTIN — Texas Supreme Court has agreed to hear a case involving extent of the Governor's veto power and a multimillion dollar higher education construction program.

The High Court November 5 will listen to arguments in the suit brought by Austin architectural firm Jessen Associates Inc. against Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Bullock refused to approve payment of a $2,590 fee to the architects for cost studies on a $10 million addition to The University of Texas law school.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe this year vetoed riders to the new state appropriations bill which sought to give prior legislative authorization to millions of dollars in university construction.

Briscoe cited a 1975 law which required that such projects have approval of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

Attorneys for Jessen said court guidance is necessary to settle the issues for state officials and governing bodies of all state universities.

Debate Rages On

Voter interest in the great debate over a new state constitution doesn't match that of ardent proponents and opponents.

Checks with key election officials over the state indicate a low turnout in the November 4 constitutional revision election, unless there is a dramatic pickup in citizens' concern during the last week of the blistering campaign.

Oil Allowable Set

For the 44th month, the Texas Railroad Commission set the oil allowable for November at a wide-open 100 per cent.

Production is running an average of 113,047 barrels daily less than in 1974. Imports averaged nearly 4.6 million barrels a day, during a recent four weeks' period, which amounts to an increase of 824,000 barrels from early this year.

As a waste control measure, allowable for the East Texas field was limited to 86 per cent production.

Beach Force Named

Atty. Gen. John Hill appointed a "Beach Task Force" of five assistants to work with coastal county officials to assure open, clean and safe beaches.

Session Feared

House Speaker Bill Clayton said banning school fees may cause a special legislative session.

Clayton referred to a recent attorney general's opinion that schools cannot require students to pay fees for driver education, workbooks, lab materials, band uniforms and other items unless the legislature authorizes the charges.

"This will put some of our school districts in a financial bind, and we may need a special session to help them out," the speaker said. "But I hope they can make it until 1977."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 provides a new Article IX, Local Government, which authorizes the powers of local government. Under this amendment local government would remain basically the same with the exception that County Commissioners' Courts would be granted ordinance-making powers.

Proponents argue that: counties should have the authority to regulate unincorporated areas within their boundaries to insure orderly planning and development, protect the environment and adapt to the immediate needs of the people without the necessity of going to the Legislature each time for special authorization to do those things which a governing body should have the power to do on its own.

Opponents of the proposal argue that: the granting of such legislative authority to County Commissioners' Courts would give rise to a multiplicity of regulations and undertaking of projects and programs in undeveloped, unincorporated areas which are appropriate only to an urban-developed area; and the Commissioners' Court have easy access to the Legislature so that it can be granted authority to do specific things.

The proposal would also permit cities of more than 1500 population to create their own home-rule government with an autonomous city charter giving towns of 1500 or more the same rights and powers that are needed by the major metropolitan communities. The present population limitation on home-rule cities is 5000 or more.

Proponents argue that this is necessary to meet the needs of the smaller communities of the state in establishing programs

Court Speak

Only landowners who show 51 per cent of their income comes from farming or ranching are entitled to a constitutional agricultural tax exemption, the Supreme Court held.

Court of Criminal Appeals overruled a district court's order setting bail at $75,000 for an Odessa man accused of killing his ex-wife.

The Supreme Court upheld a damage award to a Houston man who had money taken from his account by a bank to cover a loss from a forger's having signed his name on the back of a check.

The High Court affirmed a $205,095 medical malpractice award to a Jasper man. In another malpractice suit, the Court upheld lower court rulings which rejected a charity patient's suit against three Houston doctors.

Texans:

If you are tired of bigger government and higher taxes, vote NO on the proposed new constitution November 4.

Don't give future Legislatures a blank check.

The Houston Chronicle calls the new constitution "a dangerous document." Governor Dolph Briscoe warns it will "lead us down the road to a state income tax."

Governor Briscoe says: "It is my personal view that the current Constitution under which Texas has grown and prospered for a century is preferable to the proposed new constitution. Accordingly, I believe it is in the best interest of Texas that all eight propositions on the ballot be rejected."

Play it safe. Keep our present Constitution by voting NO on Tuesday, November 4.

NEWS FROM ...

McCaulley

By Mrs. Fred Kemp

Last week I reported that Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Eivens were renovating the house on the Eivens farm which is true but they do not plan to move here. They will spend time here on weekends and holidays fishing, hunting and visiting old friends.

Mrs. Hattie Lou Waldrop visited her aunt Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin of San Antonio who celebrated her 100th birthday. Mrs. McLaughlin makes her home with Mrs. C. W. King, her daughter.

W. D. Cleveland and son Philip of Ft. Hood recently attended the Huntsville Rodeo. W. D. left early last week to visit relatives in Dallas and daughter Annette in Little Rock, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kincaid and Jennifer arrived home in Valdosta, Ga., Monday noon, Oct. 27, after a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kemp and Mrs. and Mrs. G. W. Kincaid and friends. Jim spent part of the time while in Texas attending a National Park Administration Meeting in Dallas.

Mrs. Doris Cox of Rising Star and son Stephen spent last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Maberry. Mrs. Cox is the former Doris Pace.

Frank and James Kemp traveled to Coleman to find a registered heifer calf for show. James was one of the winners of the calf scramble at the West Texas Fair, Abilene and has to find a calf to buy before Dec. 1 to be able to use the $200 award.

McCaulley School students were out of school Monday celebrating in various ways—sleeping late, riding horses, shopping and some were just loafing. Teachers were spending the day in inservice, or attending the TSTA convention in Snyder.

The rest of the week will be a busy one. Tuesday night the junior high and high school girls play Hobbs at the McCaulley Gymnasium at 7 p.m. Thursday an assembly program at 10 a.m. in the Gym will be presented by the Hamlin Band. Friday night the McCaulley Eagles will travel to Hermleigh to play the Cardinals in football.

Last Friday night the Eagles won their first conference game with Ira. The Eagles had only seven players and Ira had only eight. These boys must really want to play football to continue with so few players and they are to be admired. Halfback Ronnie Williams has been discharged from the Anson Hospital but is still on crutches. Center Roy Spalding is also unable to play.

Hamilton paid up. And it sure paid off.

The War of Independence had put us in the red for $27 million in securities.

It would have been easy to shortchange the public by paying them off at depressed market value. But Hamilton said no.

You see, he had pretty definite ideas about keeping the people's trust. After all, he was the first Secretary of the Treasury. So he insisted that every debt be paid in full. And they were.

Over the years, it's paid off. Today, over 9½ million Americans buy U.S. Savings Bonds through their Payroll Savings Plan at work.

They know Bonds are safe, secure and pay off at a good rate of interest, 6% when held to maturity in 5 years.

Here's a tip that's guaranteed to pay off.

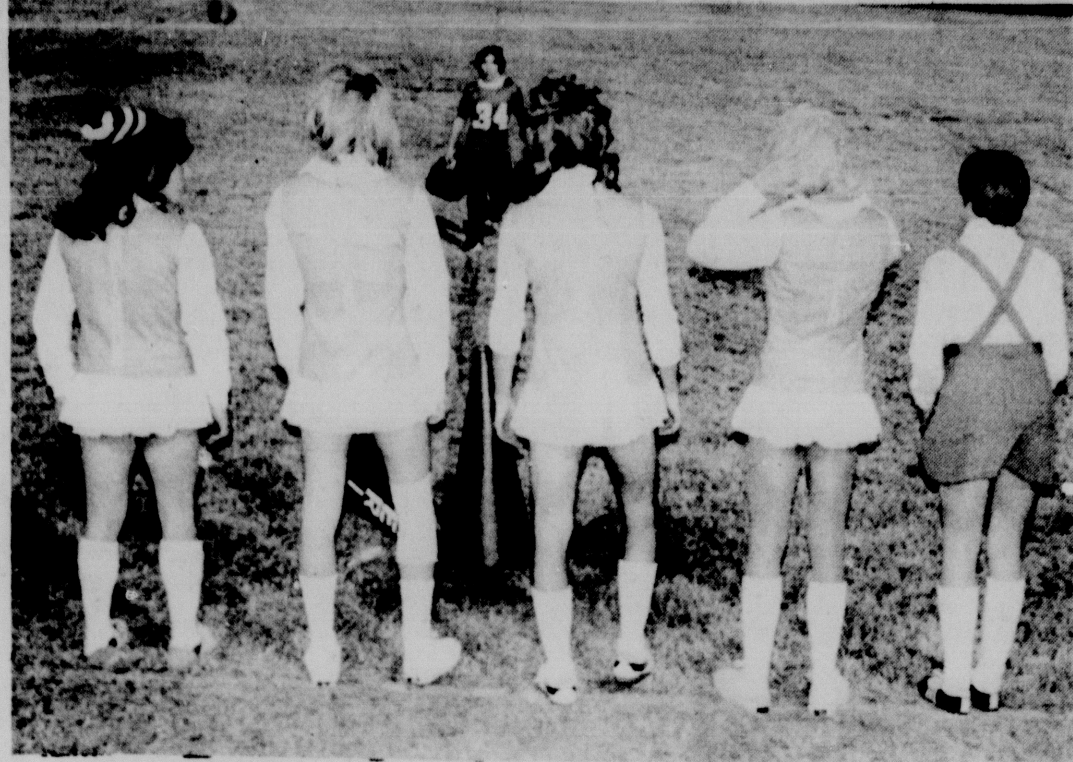

Take stock in America. With the specially designed Bicentennial Series E Bonds. Don't shortchange your future.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years. If the first year's interest is not needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Philosopher Working On What to Do With New York If the City Is Allowed to Go Under

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One wrestles with the problem of New York again this week.

Dear editor:

Congress no doubt will — as it has in the past for England, France, Germany, Japan, Russia, Portugal, Sweden, Belgium and many more I could name if I knew more geography — bail New York out of its financial crisis, but the thought that it might not opens up a lot of interesting speculation.

For instance, say the city did go under, was abandoned

when it was finally realized there really wasn't much point in having 10 million people stacked on top of each other on such a narrow strip of land where nobody has room to keep a milk cow. Can you imagine where all the brains would scatter to?

Take television. I can hear it now: "This is the NBC Nightly News with John Chancellor in Washington and David Brinkley in Hamlin."

Now that might be all right but there are more serious problems. Take those Broadway plays. I'm not sure some of them would go over here in Hamlin. Or take Wall Street. The last thing we'd need around here would be a bunch of financiers who were so busy handling money they didn't know their city was going broke. New York reminds me of the young man who woke up one morning and realized his monthly payments for his car, television set, furniture, boat and power lawnmower totaled more than his monthly salary, with nothing figured in for groceries. No Wall Street would be more at home in Washington.

What to do with all those tall buildings has me stumped. The only thing I can think of is to just let them stand for a few hundred years till they become a tourist attraction as puzzling as the pyramids. In fact they'd beat the pyramids. You could stare at them without getting sand in your eyes.

BABY GIRL
Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Carlton of Mountaineer, N. M., are parents of a girl, Christi Ann, 6 lbs. 12 oz. born Oct. 22 in Albuquerque, N. M.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carlton and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson, all of Copperas Cove. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carlton of Hamlin and great-great-grandfather is Jake Farmer of Sweetwater.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley of Odessa are parents of a girl, Amy Elizabeth, 6 lbs. 15½ oz., born Oct. 24. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilder and Mr. and Mrs. Will Bradley of Forrest City, N. C.

Sea Note. OR, HOW AMERICA floated a LOAN.

In 1798 we needed a navy. Boy, did we need a navy!

We were just over our troubles with the Barbary pirates when we were faced with the threat of a new war on the seas. This time with France.

So, Congress authorized the President to commission ships to provide protection for the United States. And the American people loaned their new country $711,700 in partial payment of the vessels.

Today, Savings Bonds can help keep both you and America above water. And it's easy when you buy them at your bank or through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

So, take stock in America. Buy United States Savings Bonds.

They're a watertight investment.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deducted until redemption.

Radial
A 40,000 Mile Radial Tire

KEEPS ITS FEET EVEN IN THE RAIN

8 wide grooves to help the tire ride on the road, instead of the water!

Suppose you're driving along and it starts raining. Control of your car becomes a major concern — you can slip — can slide.

One of the main reasons it happens is water building up under your tires faster than your tires can squeeze it out. Believe it or not, this effect can actually raise your car off the roadway — so you are riding on a film of water, not the road.

It's called hydroplaning . . . and it's serious, even at the legal highway speed.

In a quick-stop situation during a sudden downpour, or when you pull out to pass, you can skid and lose control. Goodyear's Custom Polysteel Radial was designed specifically to help resist the danger of hydroplaning . . . and to help give you a 'feel' for wet roads.

Light Voter Turnout Expected In Constitution Election Tuesday

A light voter turnout is being predicted here Tuesday when Hamlin voters join voters across Texas in determining the fate of the proposed revision of the Texas Constitution.

Only one voting box will be open in Hamlin for this election with both boxes, one and 14, combined. Local voters will cast their ballots on the eight propositions at the Public School Gymnasium between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. John Watts will serve as election judge.

The voters of Texas will have the opportunity to vote on a revised constitution for the first time in 100 years Tuesday. The proposed revision of the constitution is submitted in the form of eight separate amendments, each of which revises a particular portion of the constitution and may be individually adopted or rejected by the voters.

The eight propositions as they will appear on the ballot are as follows:

Proposition No. 1—The constitutional amendment revising the Separation of Powers, Legislative, and Executive Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 2—The constitutional amendment revising the Judiciary Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 3—The constitutional amendment revising the Voting and Election Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 4—The constitutional amendment revising the Education Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 5—The constitutional amendment revising the Finance Provision of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 6—The constitutional amendment revising the Local Government Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 7—The constitutional amendment revising the General Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Proposition No. 8—The constitutional amendment revising the Mode of Amending Provisions of the Texas Constitution.

Ex-Student to Start Fund For Memorial Scholarship

In weekly meetings by the officers of the Hamlin Ex-students Association, plans for the 21st annual Hamlin High School Homecoming are being formed.

A new feature of the 1975 event will be establishing a memorial scholarship fund in memory of deceased ex-students. Plans are to provide an additional scholarship each year to a deserving graduate. Anyone wishing to donate in memory of an ex-student may send donations to the Memorial Scholarship Fund, Box 323, Hamlin.

Officers are also asking residents to bring pictures of deceased ex-students to Mar-Joe's Merle Norman Studio.

for the memorial window to be prepared by Mrs. Robert Fowler. Pictures are to be picked up by the owners after Homecoming.

The Homecoming will be a part of the Hamlin Bicentennial celebration, according to C. L. White, Ex-student president. He urges citizens to make an extra effort to take part in the Nov. 7-8 activities.

Float entries for the Nov. 8 parade should be entered with Mrs. Leone Brown or O. H. Weaver Jr.

The association is also selling green felt "Piper" hats. These are available at Reynold's Drug and Mar-Joe's. This is a project that has been sponsored before by the association and has been popular with the young children, especially those who ride with the "Little Pipers" in the parade, the officers noted.

Several class reunions are being planned by individuals during the homecoming. Special activities are planned for the classes of 1955, 1960 and 1965. Others who may be planning class reunions are asked to contact the Hamlin Herald for this information to be published next week.

The usual schedule of activities will include the Friday evening chili supper before the Stamford-Hamlin football game, crowning of the queens at halftime and the after game coffee.

Saturday activities include a 9 a.m. coffee for National Honor Society and Student Council ex-students and teachers, the 10:30 downtown parade, the noon barbecue luncheon, and a tour of the churches and Girl Scout open house during the afternoon.

The officers will meet again Monday at 5:30 p.m. in Sweetwater Savings Association Hamlin Branch Community Room.

Reading Consultant Works With Right to Read Program Here

Dr. Jann Skinner, professor of reading at Pacific College, Fresno, Calif., was in Hamlin Monday and Tuesday serving the teachers in grades two through five as a consultant in the Right to Read program.

Teachers here Monday in an in-service day were joined for the special workshop by Aspermont teachers. Dr. Skinner pointed out revisions in the curriculum for more effective teaching of reading. Emphasis was placed on developing an overall program that would be more effective.

Through testing and evaluation weak points could be spotted and corrected. Testing would not be for a grade, she said, but to evaluate the child's potential and progress.

The teachers were divided into small working groups and Dr. Skinner circulated among the groups to point out the reading skills that should be taught at the various grade levels.

Dr. Skinner is curriculum coordinator for the Firebaugh School District in California.

Ray Simmons of the Education Service Center, Region 14, Abilene, assisted in the day's activities.

Dr. Skinner spoke to the Lions Club Tuesday at noon as a guest of Larry Butler, principal of the Hamlin Elementary School. During the day Tuesday she worked with individual teachers.

AT IN-SERVICE DAY—Members of the Hamlin Elementary School faculty discuss reading programs with Dr. Jann Skinner of Fresno, Calif., seated, after the in-service day here Monday. From left are Becky Lucas, Mrs. Charles Connally, Mrs. Chris Pena, Joe McMillan, Ray Simmons, right, a representative of Region 14 Education Service Center, Abilene, also attended the all day session. Dr. Skinner was here as a consultant in the local Right to Read program.

HALLOWEEN VISITORS—Children of members of Beta Theta Chapter, in clever Hallowe'en costumes, entertained residents of Holiday Lodge with Hallowe'en songs at the Monday evening party in the dining hall. After the entertainment the children helped their mothers and other sorority members serve refreshments to the residents. These children and many others will be "trick or treating" at the end of the week.

NEWS AND VIEWS...

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Pipers to Play At Coahoma

The constitutional election to be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, has to be one of the strangest elections we have seen in Texas.

In the past, you have never had any trouble predicting who was for and who was against almost any issue facing the state's voters. The lines have almost always been well defined. If the more liberal members of the democratic party were for something it was not hard to predict that the conservative members would oppose it. And if the issue did not split the democratic party then you knew that if the Republicans took one side then the democrats would take the other.

But the proposed constitutional amendments facing voters Tuesday has drawn support as well as opposition from all spectrums of the state's political ranks. You can find some of the most conservative as well as the most liberal thinkers joining together either to support or condemn this attempt to rewrite our constitution.

Under these conditions, it is most difficult to decide if one is for or against the eight amendments to rewrite our present document that is over 100 years old and has been amended over 200 times.

It is tempting to just throw up one's hands and vote no to the whole thing, but is this really to our best interests?

In the first place one must decide if we need a new constitution and if we do is this the best one that we are likely to get. If we decide that we do need one, and a majority of Texans voted to call the convention that created most of the document that we will be voting on Tuesday, then we believe that we should take the advice of House Speaker Bill Clayton and support the new constitution. For it is Clayton's contention that the rural people of Texas will never come out any better than they will with this one.

It is his contention that we will see a new constitution for Texas, if not this one then it will be another one, and he feels that they will not get any better.

Like anything else of the magnitude of our state constitution, there are some areas that we favor and some areas that we question.

What bothers us the most, however, is that the opposition to the constitution seems to be either centered around the fear of change or else it is being opposed by special interest groups.

The governor and those who join him in opposing the new document on the grounds that it calls for annual sessions do so on the grounds that the more the Legislature is in session the more laws it will create and the more

After taking a week off, the Pipers will travel to Coahoma Friday to resume district action. For the Pipers, who have been virtually eliminated from the district race, it will be a game of pride and the desire to avenge last year's 13-7 loss to the Bulldogs.

For the Bulldogs who lost to Ballinger last week 7-0, the game is important in that another loss would also eliminate them from any possible title hopes. Coahoma is 3-1 in district and 4-4 on the season while the Pipers are 2-2 in district and 4-2-1 for the season.

Other District 6-AA action this week will pit Ballinger at Stamford and Winters at Colorado City. Last week while Ballinger was edging out Coahoma 7-0 and Hamlin was idle, Stamford was defeating Winters, 31-14, and Anson was shutting out Colorado City, 12-0.

For the season, the Bulldogs hold wins over Big Lake, 14-6, Colorado City, 14-6, Anson, 15-14, and Winters, 35-8. The Bulldogs lost to Post, 20-0, Cisco, 20-14, McCamey, 19-12, and to Ballinger, 7-0.

On offense the Bulldogs run from the Wishbone, the "I" Slot, and the Straight "T" formations. Leading the Bulldog attack will be quarterback Charles Tindol, 160-pound senior, who is a good scrambling passer. Joining him in the backfield will be Ken Kelso, 165-pound

Wide receiver for Coahoma will be Tim Higgins, 140-pound senior, and at tight end will be Bill Jennings, 210-pound senior. The tackles will be Ken Fryrear, 165-pound junior, and David Garten, 195-pound senior. The guards will be Bill Brown, 175-pound junior, and Terry Roberts, 180-pound sophomore, and the center will be Joe Wright, 150-pound senior.

On defense for the Bulldogs the front four will be Robert Spiller, 170-pound junior; Jennings, 210, Bobby Fryer, 190-pound junior, and Ricky Patterson, 185-pound senior. The linebackers are Danny Thomas, 160-pound junior, and Kelso, 165-pounds. The corners are Jim Phillips, 140-pound junior, and Oscar Pardon, 155-pound senior. The halfbacks are Edwin Dickson, 150-pound junior, and Tindol, 165-pounds, while the safety is Roberts, 160 pounds.

Oak Grove Sets Dinner Saturday

The Sunday School of Oak Grove Baptist Church will serve a turkey dinner Saturday evening in Fellowship Hall, according to Louberta Maxwell, superintendent.

Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m. The menu will include turkey and dressing, green beans, candied sweet potatoes, tossed salad, cranberry sauce, Louberta's hot rolls, assorted pies, iced tea and coffee. Plates are $2.25 each.

The public is invited.

County Cancer Unit to Meet

Jones County unit of the American Cancer Society will meet in Hamlin Monday at 7 p.m. in the Long Branch dining room, according to Mr. Don Howard, president.

The program will be presented by the Public Education Committee with Mrs. Homer J. Merriott, Stamford, chairperson.

Other committee members are Mmes. J. D. Pickens, Anson; Robert Fowler, Hamlin; and B. B. Gay, Stamford. County program chairperson is Mrs. W. L. Hunter Jr. of Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Craig attended the fall board meeting of West Texas Press Association at the Hilton Inn in Lubbock Sunday. Craig is secretary-treasurer of the Association.

Two Games Here Today With Anson

Hamlin will host a doubleheader here tonight (Thursday) with Anson with the two eighth grade teams playing at 6 and the Junior Varsity playing at 7:30.

Last Thursday the Hamlin JV's defeated the Abilene Cooper B team, 28-13, and the eighth graders were idle.

Spook House Planned Here

A spook house Hallowe'en night will be set up in the old church on South Central Street to entertain youngsters with ghosts and goblins. The church building is located at 1013 South Central. Several local families will supervise the spook house which will be open from 7 p.m. until midnight.

Among the families helping with the spook house will be the Ronald Halls, the John Ofensteins, Peggy Kieschnick, the Daily Ponders, the Jackie Warners and Lo's Bates.

A charge of 10 cents per person will be charged and all proceeds will go to West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Hamlin High School Happenings

(Compiled each week by the HHS Journalism Class)

The theme for the 1975 Homecoming is in collaboration with the nation's Bicentennial. The theme will be "Hamlin-70 years, America-200."

Homecoming will be Nov. 7 and 8. During the Hamlin-Stamford football game on Nov. 7, the Homecoming and Coming Home Queens will be crowned.

Homecoming Queen nominees include Sonja Corlee, Debra Hollis, Cyndi Lewis and Debbie Light. The Coming Home Queen will be chosen from past graduates of Hamlin High School.

The parade will be started at 10:30 Saturday morning. The parade is directed by O. H. Weaver Jr. and Mrs. Earl Brown. Floats will be judged with cash prizes for the top three floats in two divisions, beauty and open.

A chili supper will be held before the football game from 5 to 7 p.m., and a barbeque will be held after the parade from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Both will be set in the high school cafeteria.

The Hamlin Junior Class' 20-8 victory over the Senior Class unfolded like a time bomb in the Powder Puff football game Monday evening in Piper Stadium.

The senior captains were Lisa Absher, Debi Cary and Cyndi Lewis, while the junior captains were Cheryl Baker and Barbara Hooper.

After the seniors won the toss to open the game, Barbara Hooper was on the run, scoring the first six points for the juniors. Jamie Crowley added the extra points.

During the second quarter the juniors scored again with Liz Hooper tallying the touchdown.

At the beginning of the third quarter Stacy Bell came in and scored a TD and the extra points for the seniors' only scores.

Barbara Hooper scored the final six points for the juniors in the final quarter.

Referees for the contest were seniors Rick Craig and David Moore, and sophomores Mack Lee and Mike Hymer. All proceeds went to the Student Council.

The sophomores and half of the eighth grade played with the juniors, while the freshmen and the rest of the eighth grade played with the seniors.

The Hamlin junior varsity crushed the Cooper Cougars 28-13 in Piper Stadium last Thursday evening.

Mack Lee was the leading scorer of the game with three touchdowns, while fullback Tim Dechairo also tallied a TD for the Pipers. Jimmy Gipson converted all four extra points.

Since the junior varsity A-team and B-team were combined they have won four consecutive games which leaves their record at 4-2-1 for the season.

The Hamlin girls' volleyball team will host the first round of the District 6-AA tournament Oct. 5 in the Hamlin Gym. The next evening the district teams are to play in the Ballinger Bearcat gym for the finals.

The Hamlin Pied Piper Band, under the direction of Tim Jones, will compete in U. I. L. marching contest Nov. 4 in Shotwell Stadium in Abilene.

Deadline for news for events that happen before or during the weekend is noon Monday.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO (October 30, 1925)

Wednesday morning two bales of cotton were discovered on fire in the public cotton yard and the fire boys went out and rolled the bales away from the others and prevented a general destruction. This was a second fire this week and this time as on Monday morning the wind was extremely high.

Evidently somebody thinks the M.K.—T station at Hamlin has money. Every few weeks the safe is broken open, and each time they are almost fooled. Last Saturday night the safe was blown again and the sum of $3.03 was taken out. That was all there was. This is getting to be "awful" common. But listen, we are informed that this SAME office was again entered Sunday night by the same door, and the desk and drawers were searched, but nothing but a fountain pen was missed. Evidently the parties must have thought that surely a big railroad company has some cash about, somewhere, but there was nothing doing. Now, fellows, or fools, what's the use of breaking open a perfectly good safe anyway?

Reg Robbins, known better as "Robin Red Breast" flew over Hamlin again Monday in his plane paying Hamlin a second visit. It will be remembered that he was here last fall and "Jimmie," the dare devil, parachute jumper was with him. Now Robbins merits the name of "Robin Red Breast," for he flies equal to a bird. This is funny that Robbins returns to Hamlin. Can't tell whether he is married or single. All we can get him to say is that "All my debts are paid, and I'm a single man when I'm up in the air. Robbins is going to remain here till next week. His home is in Fort Worth and he is a fine fellow.

TWENTY YEARS AGO (October 28, 1955)

Elaborate plans for the Hamlin Garden Club's first Flower Show were shaping this week as the event scheduled Saturday afternoon and evening shaped, officials of the group announced, the middle of the week. The Hamlin High School Cafeteria will be the site for the show, which will be open from 2 until 8 p.m. to the general public.

New parking place stripes were being painted along Hamlin's main streets this week adjacent to parking meters. The spaces, a little larger than most city's parking spots will make parking easier. Crews of the State Highway Department last week painted new traffic lane stripes on Central Avenue and Lake Drive.

Dr. Joe C. Humphrey, academic dean of McMurry College at Abilene will be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the Elementary Parent-Teachers Association, when it convenes Thursday, Nov. 3, at 3:45 p.m. in the Primary School Building. All parents of the community are urged by P-TA officials to attend the session and hear Dr. Humphrey. Topic of the meeting will be "The Family Sustains the Schools."

A shortage of cotton pickers in the County, typical of that experienced in the Hamlin area, was hampering cotton harvesting in Jones County, according to the latest farm labor bulletin of the Texas Employment Commission. Shortage of some 300 workers was reported for the Jones County Region. Other areas counties were reporting greater and lesser need for pickers.

TEN YEARS AGO (October 28, 1965)

Robert Moore and Sammy Ferguson represented Hamlin High School Student Council at a district student council conference Saturday in Stamford. Twenty schools from the Oil Belt District of Student Council attended the conference. Workshops were conducted on patriotism, citizenship, school spirit, silk screening, foreign exchange students and limiting a students participation in school activities. Accompanying Robert and Sammy to the conference was Milburn Wink, local teacher problems they will create. Based on that assumption, maybe we should change it so that the Legislature only meets every 10 years!

But in our opinion the state just operates from one crisis to the next when it tries to take care of the business matters of a state as large as Texas every two years.

The one thing that scares us is that almost every special interest group that opposes this new constitution is doing so in the name of the "people." Almost all of them claim that the new constitution would take something out of the hands of the people and give it to the legislators or someone else.

In almost every case when people tell you they are doing something to protect the rights of the "people," what they really mean is that they have a good thing going and don't want it messed up. Our whole system of government is based on the concept of representative government, not on the idea that every issue should be settled by the individual voter.

Regardless of whether we are operating under our present constitution or the new one being proposed, our government can only be as good as the people we elect to office.

As William Broyles points out in this month's issue of Texas Monthly, almost every objection seems to fall into one of three categories: it is either selfish, uninformed, or nitpicking.

In making a decision on how to vote next Tuesday we asked ourselves if the new constitution is substantially better than the old one and if it is likely to be the best that we're to get? In both cases we have to say yes and therefore we plan to vote for all eight propositions.

While we don't necessarily urge everyone to vote the way we do, we do hope that sometime between now and Tuesday you will take the time to study the issues involved, if you have not already done so, and vote accordingly.

AFTER THE PARTY IS OVER

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

©Coleman Adv. Ser.

Have you ever felt like this little girl after a big, exciting day at the Fair, or a party? You know how you feel — excited, exhausted; but you feel good, too. Sometimes you just want to lie down and think about it. But like the little one in this picture you, also, are too tired to remove your party hat or your shoes.

Sometimes it is delightful just to lie down and think of something good and wonderful and happy. It is good just to be still and sort of day-dream about what has happened.

There are other times in our lives when we need to achieve a sense of quietness and think of God. The Psalmist says, "Commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still." Psalm 4:4. God says in Psalms 46:10 "Be still and know that I am God."

We invite you to attend church and sense the still, quiet holiness that is God's presence in the midst of the congregation.

A message to voters

All registered voters have an opportunity to vote in our Constitutional Election on Tuesday, November 4.

Free and open elections are the foundation upon which Democracy is built. It is the responsibility of the Secretary of State to protect your voting rights.

If you have any problems voting on November 4, please call us in Austin at this toll-free number:

1-800-292-9677

Exercise your right to vote. It's easy, and it's important.

Sincerely,

Texas Secretary of State

Texans to Vote On New Constitution Nov. 3

PROPOSITION NO. 3 creates a new Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections. It provides that a person who is at least 18 years of age, is not a convicted felon in prison, on parole or probation, or is not mentally incompetent, would be qualified to vote under laws enacted by the Legislature.

Proponents argue that this amendment establishes universal suffrage which is basically the requirement of the U. S. Constitution as it is now interpreted. Opponents point out that this provision would enable the Legislature to permit convicted felons to have a full restoration of citizenship, including the right to hold elected office, without pardon by the passage of a statute permitting such a person to vote.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 provides for a new Article VII, Education, which governs public education. The amendment calls for an equitable system of free public schools below the college level. The system must provide each individual an equal educational opportunity but may provide local enrichment of educational programs.

Proponents argue that: this gives the authority and the mandate to provide an equal opportunity for every child in this state to have as complete an education as is possible; this is what federal mandate requires; and citizens should meet the challenge and move forward to accomplish it.

Opponents argue that: while the aim might be laudable, the words are subject to a broad interpretation which would come up with ridiculous results in financing, programming and staffing; and the last Legislature had spoken to the problem of equalizing educational opportunity under the existing Constitution and there is no need for a change.

The Permanent and Available School Funds remain intact as do the Permanent and Available University Funds for the use of the University of Texas and Texas A&M University Systems. A second "Higher Education Fund," financed by a 10 cent property tax, would be available to establish an endowment for all other state colleges and universities other than the A&M and Texas systems.

Proponents argue that all higher educational institutions in the state should have available to them an endowment fund from which to keep their plant and facilities up to date without looking to tuition fees and the public treasury to do so. Opponents of this part of the proposal argue that there should be no endowment fund of public property and money sitting idle while the Legislature is forced to levy new and additional taxes for the upkeep, maintenance and operation of the various educational institutions; that if public property and funds are collected, they should be spent to meet the public need at the time without creating a bigger taxation burden on the general public.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 creates a new Article VIII, Finance, which governs the financial management of the state.

In this amendment the requirement that all new taxes be equal and uniform would be limited only to the levy of property taxes. It would require the establishment and enforcement of uniform standards and procedures for the appraisal of property, the only exceptions being special formulas designed to promote the preservation of open space land for farm and ranch purposes and the preservation of forest lands devoted to timber production.

Proponents contend that: this is a necessary improvement to require all citizens to carry their fair share of the tax burden; there are as many different values assessed on property as there are taxing authorities; and equalization is necessary because the allocation of state funds for school purposes is made on the basis of a local area's ability to raise funds.

Opponents maintain that: it will do nothing but raise taxes; no government ever equalizes downward but always "equalizes" upwards and this will force an additional tax burden, particularly in outlying urban areas where there is less ability to meet the demand; the equal and uniform provision should apply to all forms of taxation instead of just property taxation; and local appraisers are better prepared to judge the value of local property than someone in Austin.

The proposal permits the authorization of state indebtedness and the pledging of the credit of the state without a Constitutional amendment. Proponents of this portion of the proposal say that this is a more practical way to authorize state indebtedness, with the same safeguards as contained in the present Constitution. It requires a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Legislature as well as an approval by a majority of the voters.

Opponents of this portion of the proposal claim that it amounts to the establishment of debt legislation by referendum, and it would make less of an impression on the voters than if they realized they were amending their Constitution in order to authorize debt.

The proposal maintains the same pay-as-you-go provisions requiring appropriations to be within estimated revenues. It puts into the Constitution the prohibition against levying a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feed or seed, prescription drugs or medicine, and food for human consumption.

Proponents of this part of the proposal contend that the pay-as-you-go provision should be retained. The exemptions that have been placed in the sales tax on these various items are already established practice and would protect the public from further encroachment from the sales tax.

Opponents of the proposal contend that locking the sales tax exemptions into the Constitution would effectively remove some available revenue sources from consideration. It would also create an unfair disadvantage for industrial development because industrial production machinery is already taxed and this would prohibit agricultural production machinery from every being taxed. It would also remove a major untapped source of revenue which most states having a sales tax already enjoy. The proposal fails in that it does not prohibit the levying of a state progressive income tax.

necessary to serve their population needs. Opponents of the proposal claim that it would be granting an unnecessarily broad, autonomous power to small communities which can generally provide for the limited needs of its citizens under the general law provisions of the state statutes.

There is also a provision for intergovernmental co-operation and consolidation of offices and transfer of functions between local political subdivisions. Proponents claim that this would result in a substantial reduction in costs and duplication of services of local governments. Opponents claim that this same consolidation and cooperation is presently authorized by the Constitution and has not accomplished the desired results.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 provides a new Article X, General Provisions, which is basically a housekeeping article. It includes: the homestead provisions; separate or community property; protection of personal property from forced sale; protection of wages from garnishment; limitations upon banking corporations; provisions for the regulation of alcoholic beverages; and provisions for the regulation of medical practitioners.

It prohibits lotteries and gift enterprises; regulates interest and lending; provides for the various retirement systems of public employees, and protecting the environment, conserving natural resources and public property as well as wildlife resources.

Proponents of the new Constitution say that this amendment is necessary to take care of those constitutional protections and prohibitions that exist in the present Constitution, are desirable, and do not particularly fit under any of the other articles.

Opponents contend that: while this does continue some desirable protections of the existing Constitution, it adds one very undesirable aspect in the language which seeks to protect the environment. This language could create a super land title in the state which would give legislators the authority to exercise all sorts of controls over the use of the property; that it would conceivably give rise to land use enforcement, statewide zoning and building codes and remove a portion of the landowners title from him and vest it in the state; that this is the fixing of title to all property in the state which could be held temporarily and at the will of the state by an individual citizen.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 provides a new Article XI, Method of Amending the Constitution of the State. It maintains the same basis for submission of amendments as was utilized in submitting these eight amendments; that is, submission by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the membership of both houses of the Legislature and adoption by a simple majority of the people voting in an election called for that purpose.

It does add a provision that a question of a constitutional convention be submitted by the Legislature at least once each thirty years. Proponents argue that this added provision is necessary so that the people will not have to be governed by a document that is 100 years old without every having had an opportunity to totally revise it. Opponents of the provision contend that the current Constitution can adapt itself to all situations including that of calling a constitutional convention as it did in 1973; that there is no need to be told by the Constitution how often the people have to revise it.

AUSTIN — Texas Supreme Court has agreed to hear a case involving extent of the Governor's veto power and a multimillion dollar higher education construction program.

The High Court November 5 will listen to arguments in the suit brought by Austin architectural firm Jessen Associates Inc. against Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Bullock refused to approve payment of a $2,590 fee to the architects for cost studies on a $10 million addition to The University of Texas law school.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe this year vetoed riders to the new state appropriations bill which sought to give prior legislative authorization to millions of dollars in university construction.

Briscoe cited a 1975 law which required that such projects have approval of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

Attorneys for Jessen said court guidance is necessary to settle the issues for state officials and governing boards of all state universities.

Debate Rages On

Voter interest in the great debate over a new state constitution doesn't match that of ardent proponents and opponents.

Checks with key election officials over the state indicate a low turnout in the November 4 constitutional revision election, unless there is a dramatic pickup in citizens' concern during the last week of the blistering campaign.

Oil Allowable Set

For the 44th month, the Texas Railroad Commission set the oil allowable for November at a wide-open 100 per cent.

Production is running an average of 113,047 barrels daily less than in 1974. Imports averaged nearly 4.6 million barrels a day, during a recent four weeks' period, which amounts to an increase of 824,000 barrels from early this year.

As a waste control measure, allowable for the East Texas field was limited to 86 per cent production.

Beach Force Named

Atty. Gen. John Hill appointed a "Beach Task Force" of five assistants to work with coastal county officials to assure open, clean and safe beaches.

Session Feared

House Speaker Bill Clayton said banning school fees may cause a special legislative session.

Clayton referred to a recent attorney general's opinion that schools cannot require students to pay fees for driver education, workbooks, lab materials, band uniforms and other items unless the legislature authorizes the charges.

"This will put some of our school districts in a financial bind, and we may need a special session to help them out," the speaker said. "But I hope they can make it until 1977."

Texans:

If you are tired of bigger government and higher taxes, vote NO on the proposed new constitution November 4.

Don't give future Legislatures a blank check.

The Houston Chronicle calls the new constitution "a dangerous document." Governor Dolph Briscoe warns it will "lead us down the road to a state income tax."

Governor Briscoe says: "It is my personal view that the current Constitution under which Texas has grown and prospered for a century is preferable to the proposed new constitution. Accordingly, I believe it is in the best interest of Texas that all eight propositions on the ballot be rejected."

Play it safe. Keep our present Constitution by voting NO on Tuesday, November 4.

Court Speak

Only landowners who show 51 per cent of their income comes from farming or ranching are entitled to a constitutional agricultural tax exemption, the Supreme Court held.

Court of Criminal Appeals overruled a district court's order setting bail at $75,000 for an Odessa man accused of killing his ex-wife.

The Supreme Court up-

held a damage award to a Houston man who had money taken from his account by a bank to cover a loss from a forger's having signed his name on the back of a check.

The High Court affirmed a $205,095 medical malpractice award to a Jasper man. In another malpractice suit, the Court upheld lower court rulings which rejected a charity patient's suit against three Houston doctors.

NEWS FROM ...

McCaulley

By Mrs. Fred Kemp

Last week I reported that Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Eivens were renovating the house on the Eivens farm which is true but they do not plan to move here. They will spend time here on weekends and holidays fishing, hunting and visiting old friends.

Mrs. Hattie Lou Waldrop visited her aunt Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin of San Antonio who celebrated her 100th birthday. Mrs. McLaughlin makes her home with Mrs. C. W. King, her daughter.

W. D. Cleveland and son Philip of Ft. Hood recently attended the Huntsville Rodeo. W. D. left early last week to visit relatives in Dallas and daughter Annette in Little Rock, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kincaid and Jennifer arrived home in Valdosta, Ga., Monday noon, Oct. 27, after a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kemp and Mrs. G. W. Kincaid and friends. Jim spent part of the time while in Texas attending a National Park Administration Meeting in Dallas.

Mrs. Doris Cox of Rising Star and son Stephen spent last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Maberry. Mrs. Cox is the former Doris Pace.

Frank and James Kemp traveled to Coleman to find a registered heifer calf for show. James was one of the winners of the calf scramble at the West Texas Fair. Abilene and has to find a calf to buy before Dec. 1 to be able to use the $200 award.

McCaulley School students were out of school Monday celebrating in various ways—sleeping late, riding horses, shopping and some were just loafing. Teachers were spending the day in in-service, or attending the TSTA convention in Snyder.

The rest of the week will be a busy one. Tuesday night the junior high and high school girls play Hobbs at the McCaulley Gymnasium at 7 p.m. Thursday an assembly program at 10 a.m. in the Gym will be presented by the Hamlin Band. Friday night the McCaulley Eagles will travel to Hermleigh to play the Cardinals in football.

Last Friday night the Eagles won their first conference game with Ira. The Eagles had only seven players and Ira had only eight. These boys must really want to play football to continue with so few players and they are to be admired. Halfback Ronnie Williams has been discharged from the Anson Hospital but is still on crutches. Center Roy Spalding is also unable to play.

Hamilton paid up. And it sure paid off.

The War of Independence had put us in the red for $27 million in securities.

It would have been easy to shortchange the public by paying them off at depressed market value. But Hamilton said no.

You see, he had pretty definite ideas about keeping the people's trust. After all, he was the first Secretary of the Treasury. So he insisted that every debt be paid in full. And they were.

Over the years, it's paid

off. Today, over 9½ million Americans buy U.S. Savings Bonds through their Payroll Savings Plan at work.

They know Bonds are safe, secure and pay off at a good rate of interest, 6½% when held to maturity in 5 years.

Here's a tip that's guaranteed to pay off.

Take stock in America. With the specially designed Bicentennial Series E Bonds.

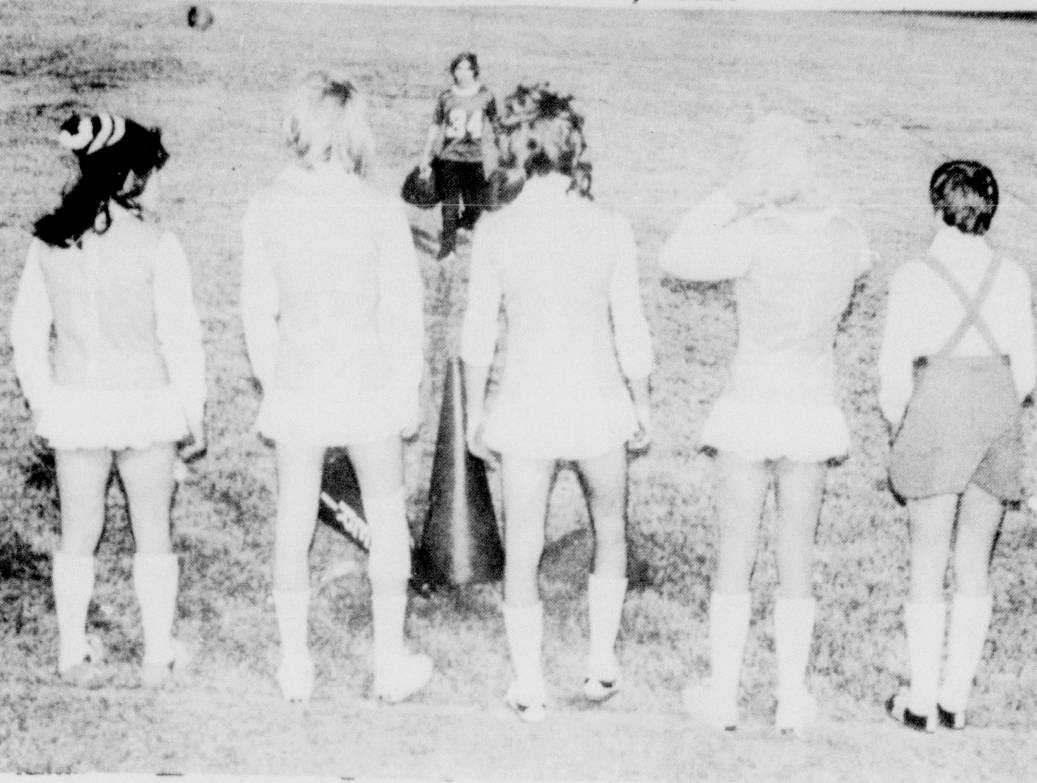

Don't shortchange your future.

Now E Bonds pay an interest when held to maturity of 6½% — the first time. Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed in your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Philosopher Working On What to Do With New York If the City Is Allowed to Go Under

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One wrestles with the problem of New York again this week.

Dear editor:

Congress no doubt will — as it has in the past for England, France, Germany, Japan, Russia, Portugal, Sweden, Belgium and many more I go by name if I knew more geography — bail New York out of its financial crisis, but the thought that it might not opens up a lot of interesting speculation.

For instance, say the city did go under, was abandoned

when it was finally realized there really wasn't much point in having 10 million people stacked on top of each other on such a narrow strip of land where nobody has room to keep a milk cow. Can you imagine where all the brains would scatter to?

Take television. I can hear it now: "This is the NBC Nightly News with John Chancellor in Washington and David Brinkley in Hamlin."

Now that might be all right but there are more serious problems. Take those Broadway plays. I'm not sure some of them would go over here in Hamlin. Or take Wall Street. The last thing we'd need around here would be a bunch of financiers who were so busy handling money they didn't know their city was going broke. New York reminds me of the young man who woke up one morning and realized his monthly payments for his car, television set, furniture, boat and power lawnmower totaled more than his monthly salary, with nothing figured in for groceries. No. Wall Street would be more at home in Washington.

What to do with all those tall buildings has me stumped. The only thing I can think of is to just let them stand for a few hundred years till they become a tourist attraction as puzzling as the pyramids. In fact they'd beat the pyramids. You could stare at them without getting sand in their eyes.

What to do with all the editors, publishers and writers now stuffed into the city is another problem, but scattering them out over the country might be beneficial. It's give them a chance to find out how different the country is from what they thought it was.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Sea Note. OR, HOW AMERICA floated a LOAN.

In 1798 we needed a navy. Boy, did we need a navy!

We were just over our troubles with the Barbary pirates when we were faced with the threat of a new war on the seas. This time with France.

So, Congress authorized the President to commission ships to provide protection for the United States. And the American people loaned their new country $711,700 in partial payment of the vessels.

Today, Savings Bonds can help keep both you and America above water. And it's easy when you buy them at your bank or through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

So, take stock in America. Buy United States Savings Bonds.

They're a watertight investment.

Now U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

KEEPS ITS FEET EVEN IN THE RAIN

8 wide grooves to help the tire ride on the road, instead of the water!

Suppose you're driving along and it starts raining. Control of your car becomes a major concern — you can slip — can slide. One of the main reasons it happens is water building up under your tires faster than your tires can squeeze it out. Believe it or not, this effect can actually raise your car off the roadway — so you are riding on a film of water, not the road.

It's called hydroplaning . . . and it's serious, even at the legal highway speed. In a quick-stop situation during a sudden downpour, or when you pull out to pass, you can skid and lose control. Goodyear's Custom Polysteel Radial was designed specifically to help resist the danger of hydroplaning . . . and to help give you a 'feel' for wet roads.

BABY TENDERLOVE®

She's soft and snuggly like a real baby, and she has sneezy colds like a real baby. First give her water from her bottle, then squeeze her tummy 'till she sneezes with a tiny "aaachoo"! Then, like a real mommy or daddy you can hold her close, wipe her tiny nose and make her all better. She's 15" tall and comes with a nightie and bottle. Age 2-7.
